IMPORTANT DATES

Managing your time effectively also means being aware of the many dates and deadlines that affect you as a Chang School student, and planning accordingly. Here are the various dates you should make yourself aware of and carefully record. Note: This is not an exhaustive list.

The Chang School will observe Ryerson University’s Fall and Winter Study Weeks; some courses may not observe these Study Week breaks (see Statutory Holidays/University Closed on the next page for Study Week closure information and consult individual course listings on the Chang School website at ryerson.ca/ce for course durations and scheduling information).

NOTE: Undergraduate program students who enroll in continuing education courses through The Chang School should be aware that continuing education deadlines are applicable and may differ from those outlined in the undergraduate calendar.

Note: Ryerson University graduates or students who have not been enrolled in a course in the past six terms must reactivate their Student ID. However, a student who requests an ID but does not enroll in a course within the first two terms of requesting an ID must also reactivate his or her Student ID.

How it Works

▸ Complete the online form to request a Student ID from Student Records. You will immediately receive an email confirmation of your Ryerson Student ID details to the email provided on the request form. To ensure a unique identity within our database, further validation may be required; in these situations, you will receive your Student ID details within two business days (Monday–Friday) of your request.

▸ Once you have been issued a Student ID, please allow 24 hours before activating your Ryerson Online Identity via ryerson.ca/accounts.

▸ You will then be able to log into the services that allow you to complete your course enrollments online. All policies including payment of fees, official withdrawal from courses, and course requisites will apply. Visit Online Enrollment for more information.

What You Need

You will be asked to provide your name, address (in-Canada only), email address, and other information required by law. We will not require you to provide any information other than what is necessary to create your Student ID.

For more information about the use of your personal data and your privacy rights, please see the Collection and Use of Information statement for the Ryerson University Student ID Request.

Notes for Undergraduate Students:
Please enroll using RAMSS for courses applicable to your degree program.

If enrolling in a continuing education course that is to be used for your undergraduate degree requirements, and in the calculation of your cumulative grade point average and academic standing, you must cross-enroll in the continuing education course by selecting the Undergraduate Career (UGRD) when enrolling online through RAMSS. In this case, you will not require a credit card to complete your transaction; you will be invoiced. However, you will be invoiced the Chang School course fee which is due at the time of enrollment. Late fees will begin to incur on the first day of the following month.

If you are registered in both a certificate program and an undergraduate degree program and the continuing education course you wish to take is applicable towards your certificate, you must select your Continuing Education Career (CNED) when enrolling online. In this case, you will require a credit card to complete your transaction.

Instructions for Enrolling Online

Step 1: Course Selection

Go to Courses and Programs.

Choose your courses using the Course Search tool or by browsing Courses by Subject or Areas of Interest.

To view course details and availability, click on a course link (e.g., CACC 100 – Introductory Financial Accounting). “Add to cart” will appear next to available scheduling options.

To add a course to your shopping cart, click the “Add to cart” button. Selecting courses in different terms will result in one shopping cart per term. Click “View cart” to see a summary of the contents in each of your shopping carts.

Step 2: Checking-Out Your Shopping Cart

Click “Checkout” on the associated shopping cart. A screen listing the courses in your shopping cart will appear.

To remove a course from the shopping cart, click “remove.” The shopping cart page will refresh and remove that course offering from your list.

To add another course to the cart before checking out, click “Find another course” to browse for more courses. No information will be lost from your cart while you search.

To enroll and pay for the contents of the shopping cart, click “Enroll.”

To continue the enrollment process, click “Proceed.”

Step 3: Logging in to RAMSS

After clicking “ Proceed,” a window will open to transmit your shopping cart to Ryerson University’s registration system, RAMSS (located at my.ryerson.ca). If a Security Alert screen appears, asking for permission to proceed, click “Yes” or the window will close and your shopping cart will be emptied.

Next, log-in to my.ryerson.ca by entering your Ryerson Online Identity and password. Click “Login.”

When you click on the RAMSS tab in my.ryerson.ca, RAMSS will open in a new window. If your browser has pop-up windows blocked, you will need to choose the option “always allow pop-ups for this site” in order for RAMSS to open. Note that your my.ryerson session will remain active in the original window.

If you do not have an Online Identity, you will not be able to proceed with online enrollment. Upon return to the Chang School website your shopping cart will be emptied. If you can't remember your Online Identity password click “Need Help” then “Students” to reset your password.

Step 4: Confirming Your Course Selection

The classes from the term-specific shopping cart are now displayed in RAMSS. You will have 20 minutes to complete your enrollment. Click the “Enrollment Shopping Cart” to continue. Then select your terms.
Select the course and click “enroll.” Proceed to step 3 of 4. RAMSS will indicate if there are any problems preventing your enrollment.

Step 5: Payment for Your Course
Review the summary on the Enrollment Confirmation screen, which includes all course fees applicable to your transaction.

Enter your credit card details and click “make a payment.” If you do not complete this step, or if the credit card payment cannot be processed, your enrollment transaction will be cancelled.

A confirmation screen appears indicating that the payment and enrollment was successful. Once you receive the confirmation, you may continue to use RAMSS or you may return to the Chang School website by closing the my.ryerson.ca browser window. If you had multiple shopping carts, repeat steps 2-5 for each one.

Please bring a copy of your RAMSS enrollment to your first class and have it available for the duration of your course(s). Students not actually enrolled in a course are not permitted to attend class.

In-Person Enrollment
You can add, swap, and drop courses in person.

ENROLLMENT FAQ

1. Are all courses scheduled every term?
No; all courses are not scheduled every term. Check Courses and Programs to plan ahead to ensure that you will be able to take the courses you need/want.

2. What is an Interview or Placement Assessment, and how do I find out if the course I’m planning to take requires one?
Some courses require an interview and/or placement assessment before you can enroll. See Interviews and Placement Assessments for a list of affected programs.

3. What is an Open House session, and how do I find out if the course I’m planning to take has one?
Open House sessions are free events that give you an opportunity to meet with course and program representatives in a one-to-one or small group setting. Open House sessions are associated with programs, so consult Courses and Programs to find out what program the course you’re interested in is part of. Then see Open House for details and dates.

4. What are prerequisites, precursors, and corequisites?
Prerequisite means that you must pass Course A before taking Course B. The course description in Courses and Programs will tell you what prerequisites, if any, are required.
Precursor means that you must have taken Course A before taking Course B, but you do not have to pass Course A before taking Course B. You must, however, pass Course A to qualify for a certificate, diploma, or degree.
Corequisite means that you must take Course A prior to, or concurrently with, Course B.

5. How do I find out if a course has any specific admission prerequisites?
Check the course description in Courses and Programs to see if it has specific admission prerequisites. You can also speak to the academic coordinator at an Open House session, or drop into The G. Raymond Chang School of Continuing Education office (Heaslip House, 297 Victoria Street). In some cases, your prior professional experience might serve as a substitute for a prerequisite. In other cases, you may be asked to provide transcripts, and possibly course descriptions or outlines of courses taken elsewhere that may also fill the prerequisite requirement.

See also Academic Bridging Courses to find out how you can fill the prerequisite requirements you need in order to be considered for admission to a Chang School certificate program. Note: Academic Bridging Courses are continuing education equivalents, and do not count as Grade 12 U courses or high school credits. They cannot be used towards obtaining an Ontario Secondary School Diploma (OSSD).

6. Can a course prerequisite be waived if I have already completed an equivalent course at another post-secondary institution?
A course prerequisite waiver may be requested if an equivalent course has already been completed at an accredited university or college. The minimum grade requirement for a course from an accredited university is 60 percent (‘C-’) and the minimum grade requirement for a course from an accredited college is 70 percent (‘B-’). To request a prerequisite waiver, please email ce@ryerson.ca with your name, Ryerson Student ID (new students may request one online), an attached unofficial transcript showing the completed prerequisite, and the course code and section for which you are requesting a prerequisite waiver.

7. What do I do if I don’t have my Grade 12 U Courses?
Sometimes students are not accepted into the Ryerson’s full-time degree programs because they don’t have all the required Grade 12 U (or high school equivalency) courses. This doesn’t mean you have to go back to high school – The G. Raymond Chang School of Continuing Education offers Grade 12 U-level courses in English, mathematics, chemistry, biology, and physics during the evenings. For more information on scheduling, see Academic Bridging Courses.

Note: Academic Bridging Courses are continuing education equivalents, and do not count as Grade 12 U courses or high school credits. They cannot be used towards obtaining an Ontario Secondary School Diploma (OSSD).

8. Where do I find a course’s start and end dates?
The course description for each course listed in Courses and Programs includes the course’s start and end dates for each of the terms in which it is offered. Note that if the course description is lengthy, you might have to scroll down the page to find the table of times and dates.

9. Is space available in the course I’m planning to take?
In Courses and Programs, course availability is indicated on a real-time basis for terms open for enrollment.

10. Is financial aid available to help me pay my tuition fees?
See Awards and Financial Aid for detailed information about merit-based awards and need-based bursaries and government assistance available to Chang School students.

11. Can I get OSAP for continuing education courses?
It is possible to receive government assistance to study through The G. Raymond Chang School of Continuing Education. Please note, however, that restrictions do apply. First, you must be registered in an approved certificate program and you must be taking at least 60 percent of a regular course load. For complete details and the most up-to-date information on OSAP, contact the Student Financial Assistance office.
12. How do I pay my course fees?
See Fees to find information about how and when to pay, fee rates, fee policies, ancillary fees and service charges, refunds, and more. All fees must be paid in full at time of enrollment. Any students with outstanding fees will be required to clear their debt before any further enrollments are processed.

International Students: After enrolling and paying for your course, you are required to obtain a valid Study Permit from Citizenship and Immigration Canada for your period of study if your studies will last longer than six months. Contact International Student Support for more information.

13. Where can I find information about important dates such as enrollment periods, withdrawal, transfer, and grade appeal deadlines?
Important Dates lists important dates for the Fall, Winter, and Spring terms.

14. Where can I find out about Ryerson’s formal policies on issues such as refunds, withdrawals, transfers, letters of permission, grades, and appeals?
See Policies to familiarize yourself with important policy information before enrolling.

15. When do I enroll for the course I’m planning to take? Is there a cut-off date?
Enrollment periods are listed on the Important Dates page. You can enroll in courses right up until the time the course starts; but remember, courses are available on a first-come, first-served basis. Many of our courses are very popular and fill up long before the start date of classes so it’s best to enroll as soon as you’ve made up your mind.

16. Should I register in a certificate program as well as in my chosen courses?
On your resumé, saying that you have successfully completed a certificate in a coherent program of study can credibly demonstrate a fully developed skill. If you’re pretty sure you would like to complete a certificate, it’s wise to register as soon as possible. See Registration in a Certificate Program for more information.

One other advantage of being a certificate student is that you will have priority enrollment privileges in the future. This means that before each new term, for a specified period of time, certificate students are able to enroll in courses before any other new or returning students. Also, only courses taken AFTER registration in the certificate will be included in your grade point average (GPA), although you will still receive credit for any previous courses you’ve taken.

You MUST register in a certificate program before you finish 50 percent of the program’s course requirements.

17. How can I find out where my classes will be held?
Look up the location of your classroom and your instructor’s name on Classroom Lookup (Note: locations are not finalized until 3:00 p.m. the first day of class). On the evening of your first class of the term, lists of the locations of all classes to be held that night will be posted in the lobbies of the Library Building and Heaslip House. Please note your section number to avoid going to the wrong room. It’s a good idea to arrive on campus 10 or 15 minutes earlier than normal that night because you might spend a little time finding your classroom.

18. How can I find out which texts to buy?
On the first night of class, your instructor will provide a course outline detailing course content, assignments, evaluation break-down, and a list of the required texts and materials. Often during this first class, time is taken out to ensure you can get to the Ryerson University Campus Store that evening before it closes. Unless you are enrolled in a week-long intensive course that requires advance preparation, you will not be expected to have prepared anything for the first class.

19. How do distance education students find out which texts to buy, and how do they order them?
Distance education students can access information about course materials specific to the course they are taking at the Distance Education Course Materials page. Students can then order and purchase the materials online through the Ryerson University Campus Store or they can visit the campus store and purchase the materials in person.
In May 2011, the Ryerson Senate passed a motion introducing a Fall Study Week; as a result, Ryerson University has changed from a 13-week term to a 12-week term (except for Engineering) to accommodate the break in both the Fall and Winter terms. This has resulted in a number of other changes at Ryerson and The Chang School.

1. What is a “12-week term”?
A 12-week term consists of 12 weeks of classroom sessions, with an additional week set aside at the end of the term for the final examination or other final assignments.

2. How many course hours will the 12-week term involve?
Course durations will be adjusted to match the new 13-week schedule. For example, 56-hour courses will become 52-hour courses, 42-hour courses will become 39-hour courses, and 21-hour courses will become 19.5-hour courses. Programs offered by Gateway for International Professionals, Programs for 50+, Spanning the Gaps, and workshops offered by all program areas will be reviewed and adjusted if required and as appropriate. See Question 4 for further information about exceptions.

3. When are the Study Weeks for Chang School students?
The Chang School will observe both of the Ryerson Study Weeks:
  ▶ Fall Study Week: Thanksgiving week, October 10, 2015–October 16, 2015; classes resume October 17, 2015
  ▶ Winter Study Week: Family Day week, February 13, 2016–February 19, 2016; classes resume February 20, 2016
Most classes will not run during these weeks.

4. Which Chang School courses will run during the Study Weeks?
Some types of course delivery modes, such as half-term courses, intensive courses, accelerated courses, and workshops, may not observe these Study Week breaks due to their condensed schedules. Consult individual courses listings on the Chang School website for specific information about course durations and dates, or consult the course outline provided by your instructor.

5. Are distance education courses affected by the Study Weeks?
Yes. Full-term distance education courses will observe the Study Week breaks unless otherwise noted. Accelerated and half-term distance education courses will run through the Study Weeks. Please check the individual course listing or your course outline to see the exact schedule for your course.

6. Where do I find a course’s start and end dates?
The course description for each course listed in Courses and Programs includes the course’s start and end dates for each of the terms in which it is offered. Note that if the course description is lengthy, you might have to scroll down the page to find the table of times and dates.

7. Is the cost per course less, considering hours are now reduced?
There are no changes in the course fees. The courses will cover the same content as in the past, but the instructors will be using different approaches to present the material in order to accommodate the new term structure.

ESL/EAL ONLINE PLACEMENT TEST

Many English as a Second/Additional Language courses require an online placement test prior to enrollment.
Note: The online ESL placement test is currently unavailable. Please contact Marju Toomsalu at mtoomsal@ryerson.ca for an alternative placement option.

Fees are noted at the end of each course description in Courses and Programs. Fees are quoted in Canadian funds and are the Regular Fee Rate and International Fee Rate.

What are international student fees?
International Students explains how to calculate the International Fee Rate for courses. It also provides additional details about services and information for international students.

FEE POLICIES

Changes
Every effort is made to adhere to the details outlined on this website, although courses, fees, days, hours of instruction, and instructors are subject to change without prior notice.

Note: Fees charged by Ryerson are approved annually by the Board of Governors for an academic year. Ryerson reserves the right to make changes in both the fees and procedures without prior notice.

Students are academically and financially responsible for all enrolled courses and fees incurred unless they formally withdraw at my.ryerson.ca or in person at Enrollment Services and Student Fees (Podium, lower ground floor, room POD64, 350 Victoria Street) within the published deadline dates (whether or not they attend a class).

Some courses are subject to HST and where applicable it is included in the total fee. Course fees that contain HST have “Tax Included” noted beside the fee.

Outstanding Fees and Costs
As a student, you are personally responsible for paying the following:

▸ library fines

▸ costs incurred for damage to, or loss of, University property

Non-payment of fees/costs will result in the withholding of grades and transcripts, issuance of official University documentation, ineligibility for enrollment, and any other action deemed appropriate by the University. Ryerson cannot be held responsible for debts incurred by individual students or student organizations.

If you have any outstanding fees owed to Ryerson, any payment will first be applied to the existing balance. Enrollment for courses in the next term is not permitted if there is any outstanding fee balance.
FEE RATES

There are two academic fee rates: Regular and International.

Regular Fee Rate
The Regular Fee Rate is for Canadian citizens, Permanent Residents, and international students who are specifically exempted by government regulations from the International Fee Rate.

International Fee Rate
The International Fee Rate is for student visa, visitor visa, and students who have not provided proof of exempt status.

The fees quoted online are in Canadian funds and are the Regular Fee Rate. The International Fee Rate for continuing education students is two and a half (2.5) times the regular student tuition fee for credit courses. The International Fee applies to degree credit courses only.

For further information on the calculation of the International Fee Rate, see International Students.

If you are exempted from the International Fee Rate, original supporting documents must be presented to Enrollment Services and Student Fees office. Photocopies are not acceptable. If you do not provide the supporting documents, or are unable to provide the required documentation at the time of enrollment, you will be required to pay the International Fee Rate.

It is your responsibility as an international student to determine the fee rate for the course(s) for which you intend to register. The individual course listings state only the Regular Fee Rate. If your immigration status changes, you must bring in official documentation by the published deadline to have your fees revised for the current term. If you miss the deadline, the change will apply to the following term. It is not possible, under any circumstance, to retroactively change you Fee Rate once the deadline has passed.

Deadline Dates
► Fall Term: November 1
► Winter Term: January 31
► Spring/Summer Term: June 15*

* If you are enrolled in a Chang School course which starts between June 15 and July 1 and your immigration status changes, we will accept changes to your fee status up until July 1.

▸ online at my.ryerson.ca (RAMSS)
▸ in person at Enrollment Services and Student Fees (Podium, lower ground floor, room POD64, 350 Victoria Street)

Note: Students who are registered in a part-time degree program must refer to the Full- and Part-Time Undergraduate Calendar for the refund policy.

Refund Deadlines
For the complete list of refund deadlines, see Important Dates.

Exceptions to Refund Policy
Some seminars/workshops publish specific refund policies that supersede the above, see Important Dates.

Material Fees
Some course fees consist of a tuition portion and a material portion. Individual course descriptions specify if their fees include a material component. For these courses, the material fee is refunded only to registrants who officially withdraw five business days prior to the first scheduled class (see Full Refund at Important Dates). After this time, the material fee is non-refundable.

Receipt of Refunds
If a student withdraws/drops a course online or in person, according to Ryerson’s official deadline dates, any applicable refund will be automatically processed within 15 days. Refunds are mailed or credited to the student’s credit card. Please note that credits to your credit card may take up to 45 days to appear on your statement. We regret that we cannot accept a telephone call or notification to an instructor as withdrawal or eligibility for a refund.

Refunds for cancelled courses will be processed automatically and a refund cheque mailed (or a credit issued to your credit card) within 15 days. If you do not receive your refund within 15 days, please telephone the Enrollment Services and Student Fees office at 416.979.5136.

“A/B” COURSES

“A/B” courses are multi-term courses. For example, if you enroll in CBLG 10A/B you will be enrolled in CBLG 10A for the selected term, and later automatically enrolled in CBLG 10B for the subsequent term. The automatic enrollment usually occurs near the completion of “A” term, and therefore the “B” term will not appear on your schedule of classes until that time.

CLASSROOM LOOKUP

The Classroom Lookup tool allows you to select a term and type the course number (Subject and Catalog #) and click “Search” to see the names of the instructors and classroom locations.
▸ Instructors and classrooms are subject to change.
▸ Classroom listings are finalized by approximately 3:00 p.m. the first day of the course in question. (Listings that appear before 3:00 p.m. are tentative; signs will be posted with final listings if there are any changes.)
▸ Campus Maps will help you locate classrooms.

Tips
▸ A single-term course code consists of a four-letter Subject and a three-digit Catalog Number (e.g., “CACC 100”).
▸ A multi-term course consists of a four-letter Subject and a two-digit Catalog Number followed by “A” or “B”. “A” corresponds to the first half and “B” corresponds to the second half of the course (e.g., “CBLG 10A” and “CBLG 10B”).
▸ To see all of the courses within a Subject for a given term (e.g., all “CACC” courses), simply type in the Subject portion of the course code.
▸ Course codes that do not start with the letter “C” and have only three letters are for courses that are not offered by The G. Raymond Chang School of Continuing Education. Listings for these courses are not available through this service.
POLICIES

Enrollment as a Chang School student constitutes a commitment to abide by Ryerson University policies, procedures, and regulations, including those concerning enrollment, academic performance, student conduct, health and safety, use of services and facilities, and the payment of fees. The following University policies have been assembled to provide useful reference. This is not intended to be a complete list, but rather a compilation of some frequently referenced policies. As policies may change throughout the academic year, students are encouraged to visit the Ryerson University Senate website for the most complete and up-to-date policies.

ENGINEERING STUDENTS

For undergraduate degree students (whether on full or partial load) in Aerospace Engineering, Biomedical Engineering, Chemical Engineering, Civil Engineering, Computer Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Industrial Engineering, Mechanical Engineering, or Computer Science, access to continuing education courses is usually only by written approval from the Faculty of Engineering and Architectural Science. (Note: Part-time degree students in the Computer Science program will continue to have full access to continuing education offerings.)

Courses that are completed through The Chang School without prior authorization from the Faculty of Engineering and Architectural Science, Associate Dean’s office (or the Dean’s designate), will not be credited towards students’ degree program requirements.

Written approval is not required to enroll in a Liberal Studies course, Communication in the Engineering Professions (CCMN 432), or Principles of Engineering Economics (CECN 801). These courses, if taken through The Chang School, will be credited towards students’ degree program requirements.

If you have any questions, please contact the Associate Dean’s office, Faculty of Engineering and Architectural Science, 416.979.5000, ext. 4502.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

Ryerson University welcomes international students who are high school or post-secondary graduates to its G. Raymond Chang School of Continuing Education. Exceptional faculty who are drawn from Toronto’s academic, business, and cultural communities will teach you, and as a student you have access to the following:
▸ the Ryerson Library
▸ the Recreation and Athletics Centre (RAC)
▸ computer facilities and laboratories
▸ international services and programs offered by International Student Support (ISS)

International students may enroll in university credit courses offered through The Chang School without formal admission to Ryerson. Some courses in advanced-level certificates do require an interview and/or prerequisite courses prior to enrollment.

Most certificate programs are offered in collaboration with our full-time degree programs. Upon successful completion of some certificate programs, and subject to normal program admission criteria and procedures, you may apply for advanced standing in applicable degree programs.

Continuing education courses are offered during three terms throughout the year. Though most courses are offered in the evening, some courses are also offered during the day, on weekends, in an intensive format, or by distance education.

For information and assistance in applying for a study permit and other immigration documents, contact the International Student Support (ISS) office at 416.979.5000, ext. 6655, email issask@ryerson.ca, or visit the ISS website.

International Tuition Fees

International students are charged a different fee from Canadian citizens or Permanent Residents unless they qualify for an exemption based on their status. International students who qualify for an international fee exemption are still required to obtain a Study Permit from Citizenship and Immigration Canada. For information on fee and immigration categories, visit Fees and Finances.

To claim exemption, you must take your original document to the Enrollment Services and Student Fees office, Podium, lower ground floor, room POD64, 350 Victoria Street, when you enroll in your courses. This document must be issued by the Citizenship and Immigration Canada (CIC). A lawyer’s documentation is not acceptable. If your status changes part way through your course, you will be considered for a fee adjustment if you submit your documentation by the dates outlined below.

Deadline Dates
▸ Fall Term: November 1
▸ Winter Term: January 31
▸ Spring/Summer Term: June 15

For the most current information, visit our website at ryerson.ca/ce.
*If you are enrolled in a Chang School course which starts between June 15 and July 1 and your immigration status changes, we will accept changes to your fee status up until July 1.

International Students Fee Rate
The fees quoted online are in Canadian funds and are the Regular Fee Rate. The International Fee Rate for continuing education students is two and a half (2.5) times the regular student tuition fee for credit courses. The International Fee applies to degree credit courses only.

How to Calculate the International Fee
1. Start with the course fee and subtract the ancillary fees and the material fee (where applicable). The material fee will be stated in a note following the course description. Please note that all Business courses are subject to a $2.00 ($0.40 for ITM students) material fee even though this is not noted in individual course descriptions. The result is the regular tuition fee.
2. Multiply this amount by two and a half (2.5), and the result is the tuition portion of the international fee.
3. Once the tuition portion is calculated, add back the ancillary fees and the material fee, where applicable. The result is the total international fee payable for your course. (Non-Tuition Related Fees and Service Charges provides more information about ancillary and material fees.)*

Financial Assistance
Ryerson University is currently unable to offer financial assistance to international continuing education students. All international students are encouraged to explore home government or private sources of funding prior to arriving in Canada.

LETTERS OF PERMISSION

Students formally registered in a certificate program who wish to take courses at another accredited post-secondary institution for credit toward their Ryerson certificate must apply for a Letter of Permission. Students must meet eligibility and satisfy all requirements. As well, they are responsible for obtaining a detailed course outline from the institution where they intend to study and making a formal application to that host institution.

Note: Transfer Credit is recorded on the Ryerson academic record as CRT and is not included in the calculation of the student’s grade point average.

No more than a total of 50 percent of a program’s requirements may consist of Challenge Credits, credits granted on a Letter of Permission, and Transfer Credits.

For further information about Letters of Permission and how to apply, visit the Curriculum Advising website.

UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS

Undergraduate Degree Students Pursuing a Certificate Program
Students enrolled in an undergraduate degree program and pursuing a Chang School certificate should ensure that their course enrollments are within the appropriate career, otherwise all courses taken under the undergraduate career will be automatically used towards the degree cumulative grade point average (CGPA), and not the certificate program CGPA. Courses taken or enrolled in through the Undergraduate career (cross-enrollment) may be used to meet certificate requirements; however, the grades in these courses will not be included in Continuing Education career CGPA.

Please Note: Ryerson’s residency requirement stipulates that 50 percent of courses in a Ryerson certificate must be Ryerson courses taken after registering in the certificate program and through The G. Raymond Chang School of Continuing Education.

Undergraduate Degree Students Considering Chang School Studies
Some certificates are not available to students enrolled in specific degree programs. Refer to Certificate Restrictions on the Curriculum Advising website. Ryerson undergraduate full-time degree program students who enroll in continuing education courses through The Chang School will be charged the applicable Chang School course fee(s) in addition to the applicable fees assessed for their degree program courses.

Chang School Students Considering Full-Time or Part-Time Degree Studies
The following are some full-time program policies students should be aware of if they plan to attend a full-time day or part-time evening program in the future.

▸ All individuals must formally apply for admission.
  Application information is available at ryerson.ca/undergraduate/admission.

▸ Students should carefully review current degree program admission requirements, deadlines, and policies at ryerson.ca/undergraduate/admission.

▸ All students should familiarize themselves with graduation requirements at the time of formal admission into a full-time undergraduate program.

▸ Students should be aware of the current degree program policy on academic suspensions from external universities/colleges and from Ryerson programs and courses. Current information is found in the Ryerson Undergraduate Calendar (online at ryerson.ca/calendar).
It should be noted specifically that continuing education courses cannot be used for degree credit/completion if taken during a period of suspension from a full-time program without prior permission from a student’s program department.

Ryerson’s Mature Student policy may vary from certificate to degree programs. For specific information on the full-time Mature Student guidelines, please refer to the Ryerson Undergraduate Calendar or ryerson.ca/undergraduate/admission.

Transfer Credit for Full- and Part-Time Degree Programs
Transfer Credits are granted for courses successfully completed at other post-secondary institutions prior to enrollment as a student at Ryerson. Students are not required to apply for Transfer Credits for courses taken at Ryerson. See Using Continuing Education Courses to Meet Degree Requirements below for further information.

Transfer Credits granted toward a certificate program that are applicable to a Ryerson degree program will automatically apply toward the degree program upon confirming an offer of admission. Once enrolled, students are advised to generate an Academic Advisement (AA) Report on RAMSS to confirm which credits apply.

Information on the Transfer Credit policy, how to apply, and deadlines is available on the Transfer Credit website.

Using Continuing Education Courses to Meet Degree Requirements
Degree-applicable courses taken through The Chang School prior to formal admission into a Ryerson degree program may be used to meet program requirements; however these courses will not be included in the calculation of a student’s degree program grade point average. Approval of course exceptions (substitutions/directives) may be required in order for a course to be used towards meeting degree requirements.

Use of continuing education courses to meet requirements of Engineering degree programs will require formal approval of the Faculty of Engineering and Architectural Science.

No more than a total of 50 percent of a program’s requirements may consist of Challenge Credits, credits granted on a Letter of Permission, and Transfer Credits.

UNIVERSITY STANDARDS

By the act of enrolling for a course of study, each student at Ryerson agrees to observe and be bound by the terms of this notice, and the terms, conditions, regulations, and policies contained in this calendar.

Ryerson shall be the sole arbiter of standards for admission to its courses of study and may, without prior notice, limit enrollment in or admission to any course or program at any level.

Ryerson reserves the right to change, without notice, any information appearing online pertaining to the standards for admission to, the requirements for the continuation of study in, and the requirements for the granting of degrees or certificates in any of its programs.

Ryerson reserves the right to alter the fees and other charges and to impose from time to time additional regulations, policies, and codes of conduct. Enrolling students are required to familiarize themselves with the general academic information on this website, as well as with the information pertaining to the course or courses in which they are enrolled.

Ryerson reserves the right to withdraw or cancel programs, certificates, or courses that are under enrolled. Ryerson reserves the right to make such changes in rules, regulations and promotional policies as may be required.

Course descriptions are provided as a matter of general information to assist present and prospective students in selecting their programs of study. Students are cautioned that actual course content and the hours and type of instruction may vary from the listings. Students are required to familiarize themselves with, and be governed by, the rules and regulations of The G. Raymond Chang School of Continuing Education and their promotional policies.

Chang School students should consult the Important Dates to ensure that they are aware of key dates affecting their academic study.

WITHDRAWALS

Course Drops
Students are held responsible for the payment of tuition fees for all courses in which they enroll. Students who find it necessary to withdraw from a course should ensure that they officially drop the course within the published deadline dates; see Important Dates. Failure to drop a course that is not completed, results in a failed grade on the student’s official transcript. This grade will be included in all grade point average (GPA) calculations.

Official course drops are accepted in the following ways:

▸ online at my.ryerson.ca
▸ in person at Enrollment Services and Student Fees (Podium, lower ground floor, room POD64, 350 Victoria Street)

Although, we strongly urge students to inform their instructors, as a courtesy, if they are planning to drop a course, notification to an instructor and non-attendance are not accepted as an official course drop.

Withdrawal From a Certificate Program
If you are not planning to continue in your Chang School certificate program, obtain and complete the Certificate Program Withdrawal Form in Forms and Documents. Submit the form either in person, by mail, or by fax to Enrollment Services and Student Fees.

Withdrawing from the certificate program does not withdraw you from courses in which you are enrolled. If you would also like to withdraw from course(s), please refer to Course Drops above.
CANCELLATIONS

Cancelled Classes
If an individual class is cancelled because of instructor illness, we will make every effort to notify students by telephone. Please remember to provide both home and business telephone numbers, as well as your email address, when you enroll.

Cancelled classes – whether due to instructor illness or inclement weather – are rescheduled to a later time; your instructor will notify you of the make-up date(s).

Cancellations Due to Inclement Weather
If inclement weather necessitates cancellations, Ryerson will try to advise local radio stations that broadcast closures. You can also get information by calling Ryerson’s main telephone number (416.979.5000) or visiting the Chang School home page.

Statutory Holiday/Weekends
On the Saturday of a three-day holiday weekend, scheduled classes will be held as usual unless the instructor notifies students otherwise.

For statutory holidays observed by Ryerson University, see Important Dates.

Cancelled Courses
Every effort is made to adhere to the details outlined on this website, although courses, fees, days, hours of instruction, or instructors are subject to change without prior notice. If it is necessary to cancel a course, every effort is made to contact enrolled students.

If you enroll in a course that is subsequently cancelled, you may transfer to another section of that course if an alternate is available; you may transfer to another course if space permits; or you may receive a refund. Refunds may take up to 30 days to process and will be made in the same tender type as the payment. Please contact the Enrollment Services and Student Fees office at 416.979.5136 if you have any questions.

Course transfers are permitted at the discretion of the University. Students may transfer from one course to another within the same term (if there is space available), provided neither course has held its third session. For Business, Distance Education, and Language (including English and ESL/EAL) courses, students must transfer before the second session. Students may apply for transfers in person at Enrollment Services and Student Fees, located in the Podium, lower ground floor, room POD64, or via my.ryerson.ca.

Please note: The online enrollment service will accept transfers only up to the start of class.

COURSE CREDIT

Challenge Credits
Ryerson’s Challenge Credit policy enables students to earn academic credit for learning and experience outside of the traditional post-secondary environment. Students may have the opportunity to be examined in, and receive credit for, a recognized Ryerson course, without meeting the normal requirements of enrollment, attendance, and instruction.

For more information on Challenge Credits and how to apply, visit the Curriculum Advising website.

Course Exceptions (Substitution/Directive)
A course substitution/directive enables students formally registered in a certificate program to substitute or direct a Ryerson course which is not normally part of the regular certificate curriculum for a course that is listed as a program requirement. The substitute course must be authorized prior to enrollment in the course and must be of equal value and be at the same level. Program director and coordinator approval is required. Decisions are not valid until authorized by the Curriculum Advising office.

Further information and applications for course substitutions/directives are available at the Curriculum Advising website.

Transfer Credits
Transfer Credits may be granted for Ryerson students registered in a G. Raymond Chang School of Continuing Education certificate program for courses successfully completed at another accredited post-secondary institution upon registration in a certificate. Approved Transfer Credits allow students to avoid repeating course work and complete their certificate program requirements sooner.

If you are not registered in a certificate program, refer to the section on Registration in a Certificate Program for application instructions.

For further information about Transfer Credits and how to apply, visit the Transfer Credits website.

Note: No more than a total of 50 percent of the program’s curriculum requirements may consist of Transfer Credits, Challenge Credits, and credits granted on a Letter of Permission.

Students do not need to apply for Transfer Credit for equivalent courses taken through The Chang School or in a previous Ryerson program. Students who completed similar courses through a previous Ryerson program may apply for course substitution. Refer to the section on Graduation or the Curriculum Advising website for more information.
GRADIENTS

Final Grades
All final grades will be available at my.ryerson.ca (RAMSS, under Academic Record, select “My Grades”) at the end of each term, approximately 10 days after the end of the examination period.

You should note that grades for single-term courses will be posted at the end of each term and grades for multi-term courses at the end of the academic year (or in August for Spring/Summer courses).

Avoid Having Your Grades Withheld
If you fail to return books or any other borrowed property to the Library, or fail to pay outstanding fees or debts to the University, your grades will be withheld until the status of these items is cleared to the satisfaction of the University. You are responsible for all books, materials, etc., borrowed against your Library card, unless you have reported their loss or theft.

If you have an outstanding debt to the University in excess of $10 (subject to change), you will not be able to access your grades and will receive a withhold notice in lieu of your graduation award at the relevant convocation ceremony.

Grade Appeals
Students may appeal a grade in a course when they believe that circumstances beyond their control have impacted their performance in the course. The grounds for appeal are: medical, compassionate, course management, and prejudice. However, students are obligated to notify and consult with either the course instructor or program director, depending on the situation, as soon as circumstances arise that are likely to affect academic performance. Failure to do so may jeopardize an appeal made at a later date.

To appeal a final grade, continuing education students must follow the Academic Appeals Process and complete the Grade Appeal Form available at the Enrollment and Records website, or at The G. Raymond Chang School of Continuing Education office, Heaslip House, 297 Victoria Street. Completed appeals must be submitted to The G. Raymond Chang School of Continuing Education office, Heaslip House, 297 Victoria Street, within the deadline to submit appeals.

If a student believes that there is an error in the grading of a test, assignment, or exam, they must contact the instructor to discuss the issue within 10 working days of the date when the graded work is returned to the class. This is not a matter for appeal, but a formal request for a grade re-evaluation may be made.

See the Undergraduate Academic Consideration and Appeals Policy for details.

Grade Point Averages
(For Certificate Programs Only)
A cumulative grade point average is calculated as an indicator of overall academic performance in a program and is used as a criterion for graduation requirements or other academic distinctions. A cumulative grade point average (CGPA) of at least 1.67 in graded Ryerson courses is required for graduation. Ryerson will not award a credential to any student whose grade point average is deficient.

The Continuing Education Career (CNED) grade point average includes all courses taken from the term of registration in any Chang School certificate program. The CNED Career GPA is computed by dividing the sum of course weights by grades obtained in the CNED Career from the time of registration to date. A program grade point average is calculated on a student’s record only after official registration in a certificate program and only after completion of at least three courses.

You should carefully check your grades each term to ensure that they meet the minimum CGPA of 1.67 for graduation.

If your CGPA falls below this level, you will be ineligible to graduate. If this occurs, immediately contact the appropriate Chang School program director or academic coordinator for advisement.

For CNED Career students registered in a Chang School certificate, the CGPA calculation for graduation purposes is based on the courses necessary to satisfy the Certificate’s curriculum requirements.

For Undergraduate (UGRD) Career students registered in a Chang School Certificate, the CGPA calculation for graduation purposes is based on the courses necessary to satisfy the Certificate’s curriculum requirements, where 50 percent of these certificate courses must be taken via CNED career registration.

Calculation of a CGPA for graduation in a Certificate Program will be manually calculated by the Office of Curriculum Management prior to graduation and will be based on grades in courses applicable to the certificate’s curriculum requirements.

Courses completed prior to formal certificate program registration will not be included in the calculation of cumulative grade point averages. Such courses, however, may be used toward program requirements, subject to the residency requirement (see Transfer Credits).

For purposes of calculating grade point averages, single-term and multi-term courses will be given weights of 1.00 and 2.00 respectively, with provision for variation from this norm under exceptional circumstances.

The following course performance designations are NOT included in calculating the grade point average: AEG, AUD, CHG, CRT, DEF, INC, INP, GNR, and PSD.

The designation F-S (Failure-Supplementary) is a marginally failing performance that may be raised to a minimum pass through a supplemental examination. Students with an F-S designation must apply to write the supplemental examination, which would be scheduled prior to the end of the second week of classes during the next academic term. The F-S grade will be included in the grade point average at zero grade points (like an F grade) as an interim failure until a final grade.
is assigned. The resulting grade point average is normally considered to be provisional until the end of the period during which the redeemable failure would be written.

The designation FNA (Failure, Non-attendance) is included in the grade point average at zero grade points and counts as a failure.

The grade earned for a repeated course is substituted for the previous grade in calculating subsequent grade point averages even if the later grade is lower, but both attempts are recorded on the transcript. No course can be repeated more than twice. If at least one of the course attempts results in a passing grade, the course will count towards graduation curriculum requirements irrespective of the sequence of grades earned.

The CNED cumulative grade point average is calculated at the end of each academic term for which additional course grades have been recorded on the student’s transcript, and is calculated on all of the student’s formal Ryerson course grades in the program in which the student is registered.

See Grading System for details on grades issued in all Ryerson faculties.

Inclusion/Exclusion of Courses in GPA

If a course is taken that is not part of the Certificate Program, and the student does not wish it to be included in the GPA, he/she must request permission to have this course excluded from the GPA calculation by completing a GPA Adjustment Form. The signed GPA Adjustment form must be submitted to Student Records (POD64) by the following deadlines:
▸ Fall 2015: September 18, 2015
▸ Winter 2016: January 28, 2016
▸ Early Spring 2016: May 9, 2016
▸ Mid-Spring 2016: July 8, 2016

Degree program students who are also pursuing a Chang School certificate may cross credit from the degree up to only one-half of the number of courses required in the certificate. These cross-credited courses will be used for the certificate’s graduation requirements, but will not be included in the CNED cumulative GPA. The remaining courses in the certificate must be taken as a certificate student registered in The G. Raymond Chang School of Continuing Education, in addition to their degree studies.

Grading System

Academic performance at Ryerson is measured in grades. In individual courses, academic performance is measured in number and letter grades. Only letter grades are recorded on a student’s academic record. The grade point average results directly from the final grades achieved in each individual course. Course grades with numerical equivalent values are used to determine GPA for students enrolled in continuing education certificates.

Final academic performance in each course is recorded as one of the above letter grades or as one of the “other” designations listed below. At the discretion of the teaching department, performance on term work or specific assignments may be marked on a numeric scale. When a numeric scale is used, it will result in a traditional percentage scale with the ranges of conversion to letter grades as shown above.
Other Course Performance Designations
There are three forms of “other,” non-letter grade designations:
1. non-graded designations acceptable for course credit purposes
2. performance designations assigned at the discretion of the Teaching Department
3. designations assigned by the Office of the Registrar
These performance designations are described in detail below.

Non-Graded Designations
The following are non-graded designations acceptable for course credit purposes, but not included in any calculation of grade point averages:

- PSD – Acceptable performance in a course graded only pass or fail (as predefined in the course outline).
- CHG – Course credit achieved through a successful challenge examination.
- CRT – Course credit achieved through an acceptable grade in an equivalent course (as determined by the Ryerson course teaching department) completed at another post-secondary institution. Such credit may be granted as a part of the admission process, but for students already studying in their program, this type of equivalence credit normally requires a prior letter of permission from the Program Director.

Designations Assigned at the Discretion of the Teaching Department
The following are performance designations which may be assigned at the discretion of the Teaching Department:

- INC – Incomplete course work or a missed final examination due to documented medical or compassionate grounds.
  An INC can be awarded only when the completion of the outstanding work or an alternate final examination may result in a passing grade. The outstanding work or alternate examination must be completed by a specified date within three months of the submission of the INC. The INC will be replaced by an official course grade when the work is completed. If the work is not completed by the deadline, the INC will become a grade of F. The designation INC is not included in calculating the GPA nor is it counted as a course credit or failed course. An INC can be changed to an AEG by a Dean under exceptional circumstances.
  Note: Students must petition their instructor to receive an INC grade within three working days of the missed final examination or final assignment deadline. Supporting documentation (e.g., Ryerson Medical Certificate) must be provided. Instructors awarding an INC grade must provide the student with a written statement of outstanding work to be completed and the date by which it must be completed (or the date of the alternate final examination). The instructor must also file a copy of this documentation with the Program Director.

- AEG – Credit granted by a Dean, in consultation with the instructor, only under exceptional circumstances when there has been acceptable performance in a course and some coursework remains to be completed.

- DEF – An interim grade assigned during the investigation of academic misconduct (as described under the Student Code of Conduct) and entered by the Registrar’s Office: Student Records at the request of the instructor. The DEF will be replaced by an official course grade upon resolution of the academic misconduct.

- F-S – Marginally failing performance that may be raised to a minimum pass through a supplemental examination. Students with an F-S designation must apply to write such an examination which would be scheduled prior to the end of the second week of classes during the next academic term. Depending on performance in the redeemable failure examination, a grade of D- or F will replace the original F-S grade on the student’s academic record. The F-S grade is calculated in the grade point average at zero grade points. Students with an F-S grade who wish to write a redeemable failure examination must apply at Enrollment Services and Student Records by completing the prescribed form and paying a non-refundable examination fee of $50 (subject to change). Students must then determine the date and place for the supplemental examination with the program director.

- FNA – Failure, Nonattendance; awarded by the professor when the student is absent from a significant portion of class meetings, including all course evaluations. This grade will be assigned when a student abandons a course without completing a formal withdrawal prior to established deadline dates. This grade is equivalent to a failure and will be included as such in the calculation of the student’s grade point average. FNA is calculated in the grade point average at zero grade points.

Designations Assigned by the Office of the Registrar
The following designations assigned by the Office of the Registrar are not included in GPA calculations, nor in establishing academic standing, nor as academic program credit:

- CNC – Course not for credit in the current program; this designation is recorded on the transcript as information supplementary to the grade earned in the course.

- GNR – Grades have not been submitted for an entire class. The student should initiate an inquiry with the faculty member and/or The G. Raymond Chang School of Continuing Education within one month of receiving the GNR grade, unless a grade revision is received.

- INP – Course work in progress with acceptable performance, but at least one more term of formal course enrollment and study is required for completion (e.g., extended absence requires repeating the course, or a final thesis is still in progress). The designation INP is not included in calculating grade point average, neither as a credit nor a failed course. This designation only applies to those courses which are registered as “INP eligible.”

For the most current information, visit our website at ryerson.ca/ce.
Transcripts
Ryerson students have one academic record, which incorporates all courses studied through graduate/undergraduate programs and continuing education. Non-graded, non-credit courses will not appear on your official transcript. All official transcripts will be complete and unabridged. Partial transcripts will not be issued.

Transcript requests may be made via RAMSS using the Request Official Transcript link. Processing time for transcripts is usually two business days; however, this timeline may be extended during peak periods such as the start and end of term.

Please note: Student Records cannot be responsible for transcripts lost or delayed in the mail. If a student has an outstanding fee balance or other obligation to Ryerson, the transcript will not be released until the balance or obligation has been cleared to the satisfaction of the University.

Further information is available online at ryerson.ca/currentstudents/essr/transcripts.

REGISTRATION IN AND GRADUATION FROM A CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

Registration in a Certificate Program
If you are registered in a Chang School certificate program, you are entitled to enroll in advance of the regular enrollment periods. You will receive priority consideration for acceptance in your chosen course(s) and avoid the possible disappointment of filled classes.

All students intending to graduate from a certificate program are required to register in the program and to achieve and maintain a minimum level of academic performance. Ryerson policies on enrollment, grading, and graduation define the minimum level of acceptable academic performance required to graduate and apply to all certificate programs.

Students may be registered in only one certificate program at any one time. Each application, either for certificate registration or for transfer into a different certificate program, requires the submission of a new request online through RAMSS in advance of the published application deadline. There is no registration/transfer fee for certificate applications.

Applications received after the published deadlines will be applied to the term directly following and the student’s registration in the certificate will not take effect until that term. For example, if you enroll in certificate courses in the Fall term, but do not submit your “Chang Certificate Reg/Trnsfr” request until after the Fall deadline, your registration in the certificate program will take effect in the Winter term. This means any applicable certificate courses you successfully completed in the Fall term will not be included in your cumulative grade point average (CGPA), however, they will count as credit towards your certificate graduation requirements (up to a maximum of 50 percent).

Items Required for Registration
To register in a certificate program, continuing education students must have the following:

- A valid Ryerson University Student ID
- An active Ryerson Online Identity and password

If you have a student email account at Ryerson University, then you have a Ryerson Online Identity. If you can’t remember your password, or if you need to activate your account, visit my.ryerson.ca, click “Log into my.ryerson” and then “Need Help”

If you don’t have a Ryerson Online Identity, you can get one by submitting a request at ryerson.ca/accounts.
Registration Procedures

You must register in the certificate program prior to the completion of 50 percent of the requirements for the certificate. Failure to register by this time could adversely affect your graduation and your GPA calculation, i.e., by delaying your graduation and your GPA calculation, i.e., by delaying your graduation by at least one term or possibly requiring that you complete additional courses.

The following steps must be taken when applying to register in each Chang School certificate program:

1. Check the Curriculum Advising website for any registration restrictions.
2. Consult Important Dates for application deadlines.
3. Review the certificate program to determine if you meet the admission criteria and/or if you require departmental approval prior to registration in your program. Some certificate programs require you to obtain departmental approval prior to registration in the program. You may obtain the appropriate “Program Pre-approval Form” from Forms and Documents. You must submit your pre-approval confirmation code with your online registration.
4. If you have a Ryerson Student ID and an active Ryerson Online Identity, register in a certificate program online in your RAMSS Student Centre by clicking “Chang Certificate Reg/Trnsfr”. If you are a new student and need a Ryerson Student ID, or if you are returning to Ryerson and need your Student ID reactivated, visit Request or Reactivate a Student ID. If you can’t remember your password, visit my.ryerson.ca, click “Need Help” and then “Students” to reset your password. Note: Each application requires the submission of a new “Chang Certificate Reg/Trnsfr” request.”. There is no fee to apply.
5. If your application is accepted, confirmation will be issued within three business days for your online registration (this timeline may be extended during peak periods such as the start and end of term). You may visit my.ryerson.ca to confirm the status of your application.

Students have two options as to when to register in a certificate program:

Option 1: Register in the certificate prior to enrolling in the first course taken in the certificate
We recommend this option which provides maximum flexibility in crediting external courses and courses previously taken at Ryerson, prior to enrolling in the certificate. Choosing this option ensures that all courses taken towards the certificate will be included in your cumulative GPA.

Option 2: Register in the certificate prior to the completion of 50 percent of the certificate program requirements
This option allows students to attempt courses in the certificate program prior to deciding to register in and pursue the certificate. Choosing this option means that courses completed prior to registration, up to a maximum of 50 percent, will be used towards the certificate’s graduation requirements, however, will not be included in your cumulative GPA.

Graduation from a Certificate Program

To be eligible to be considered for graduation with a certificate as prescribed by Senate, a student must successfully complete all program requirements. Students must submit an Application to Graduate in order to determine if they are eligible to graduate.

Students eligible to graduate will be invited to attend Convocation (graduation ceremonies). Convocation is held in the Spring and Fall of each year.

Applicants awaiting decisions on pending Challenge Credits, Course Exceptions (substitutions/directives), program transfers, or Transfer Credits should still apply to graduate. However, in order to qualify for graduation, all credits must be approved and posted on the student’s academic record prior to the final date to clear all outstanding academic graduation requirements.

For further information on Graduation and how to apply, visit the Curriculum Advising website.

Graduating in Absentia

Graduation award documents will be presented to students who attend their convocation ceremony. If you do not attend the ceremony, you may pick-up your document on campus or arrange to have it couriered to you.

Please note that all outstanding fees owed to the University must be cleared in order to receive your award document (this applies whether you attend Convocation or you are graduating in absentia).
STUDENT INFORMATION

Confidentiality of Student Records
Protecting personal information in student records from unauthorized disclosures is important to us and required by law. Ryerson University (“Ryerson”) will not disclose student personal information unless permitted by law, our policies, or with the permission of the student.

In choosing to pursue a post-secondary education at Ryerson University (“Ryerson”), students have consented to Ryerson’s right to collect, use, evaluate and disclose records of their academic performance and other pertinent information as outlined in the Registrar’s Notice of Collection.

Ryerson collects, uses, retains, discloses, and destroys student personal information in accordance with the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (FIPPA) and Ryerson’s Information Protection and Access Policy.

For degree verification information, please visit the website.

Online Identity/Email Policy
All continuing education students are required to activate and maintain a Ryerson University email account which shall be the official means by which they will receive University communications. See Establishment of Student Email Accounts for Official University Communication for further details.

For information on activating your Ryerson Online Identity and gaining access to your Ryerson email account, visit ryerson.ca/accounts.

Update Your Records
If your name, street address, email address, or home/business telephone number changes after you enroll, you must let us know as soon as possible. Your up-to-date record allows us to notify you promptly of a cancelled course or class session. Students enrolled in distance education courses will receive an email confirming their enrollment; therefore, it is especially important that your current email address is correct and valid.

Name Change
If you legally change your name, or your name is incorrect/incorrect in Ryerson’s records, it is your responsibility to notify us. The name on your Ryerson record is the name which will appear on your transcript and your graduation document.

To change your name in Ryerson’s records, you must submit the “Personal Data Change Form,” found online at ryerson.ca/currentstudents/forms/index.html, to Student Records (Podium, lower ground floor, room POD64, 350 Victoria Street), along with supporting documentation as indicated on the form. Name changes cannot be submitted online or by fax.

Note: Only students currently attending Ryerson may file a request for a name change.

Address and Phone Number Changes
You can update your address and phone number online at my.ryerson.ca. Changes will not be accepted by phone or email.

Magnet
We are pleased to share Magnet with all of our Chang School learners and alumni. Magnet is an innovative network that uses a powerful technology platform to connect job seekers to employers based on skills and needs.

What is it?
Magnet is the first platform to deliver accurate, instant, and inexpensive matchmaking for the marketplace. Using the powerful technology platform WhoPlusYou – incubated at Ryerson’s Digital Media Zone – Magnet allows job seekers to connect to the right employment opportunities that match their qualifications, skills, and interests.

The Magnet network formally launched in 2014, in partnership with the Ontario Chamber of Commerce (which represents 60,000 businesses across Ontario), and already includes over 20 university and college partners, representing more than 650,000 students, thousands of employers, and a growing list of employment-focused and community-based organizations.

Why is it different?
The traditional “process” of looking for employment has remained largely unchanged. Recruiters receive hundreds of applications, and job seekers spend hours applying for opportunities and “chasing” jobs, often based on whom they know or through advertising. With Magnet, jobs chase people.

Once you build a profile on Magnet, you access the following:

▸ A 24/7 skills matching platform on an ongoing basis, for free
▸ Connections to only the opportunities that you are interested in and qualified for
▸ A completely private profile (unlike many social media and job board tools), until you agree to share your information with an employer
▸ Full multimedia capability to differentiate your profile and showcase your talents
▸ A better understanding of your market value and what you can do to improve it

How does it work?
Once you sign up and build a profile, Magnet begins by searching for the right employment and professional networking opportunities. Your profile attracts the matches that fit your qualifications and interests. Your personal identity is always protected, and until you choose to connect, your profile and all its contents remain completely private.

To get started, sign up at ryerson.magnet.today and build your profile by simply uploading your resume or transferring your completed LinkedIn profile.

Find the perfect job today, and discover the market knowledge that will help you manage your career.

CESAR: Continuing Education Students’ Association of Ryerson

The Continuing Education Students’ Association of Ryerson (CESAR) is a membership-driven organization that works to defend and fight for the rights of our members – over 8,000 continuing education, distance education, and part-time degree students at Ryerson.

Ryerson OneCard
Continuing education students are eligible for Ryerson University’s official photo ID/OneCard. The card displays your name, photo, student number, library bar code, and status at the University (e.g., Chang School student). Although the card is currently not mandatory, one is required to take out equipment. Please check with your instructor for details.

The Ryerson OneCard is much more than the official photo ID card for Chang School students:

- It’s the library card at Ryerson as well as affiliated universities.
- It’s a copy card and a laser print card at all student machines. Funds are loaded to your “Campus Fund” account for copying, printing, food service locations, and vending machines equipped with a card reader. This feature is called stored value purchases (SVP).
- Special commuter meal plans are available to OneCard holders.
- It’s required for RAC/MAC memberships.
- It’s required for security access to labs in certain classes.

For Chang School students, the one-time cost of the card is $20.

To get your card, you must be enrolled in the current term. Visit Jorgenson Hall, room JOR02, and bring the following items with you:

1. Ryerson student identification number
2. Two pieces of ID (one must be a valid government-issued photo identification, such as a driver’s licence, passport, or citizenship or OHIP card, and must include a current photo)

The Ryerson OneCard will be valid for the term in which you are enrolled. Upon registration for each subsequent term, your card will automatically be activated.

Non-Photo Library Card
Library Cards are available for distance education, continuing education and other Chang School students who wish to borrow physical items from the Ryerson Library or from other participating university libraries in Canada (Inter-University Borrowing).

Students have two options: they can choose to apply for a free Library Card at the Circulation Desk by showing their paid fee statements or a letter of acceptance, or they may purchase a Ryerson Photo ID card from the OneCard office. Library cards must be revalidated each term. Loan periods depend on individual items, but generally books may be borrowed for two weeks, with three renewals. Only two reserve items and three periodicals/maps may be borrowed at the same time. Interlibrary loans are free.

Note: Access to articles and all Library e-resources is now available using your my.ryerson username and password. A Library Card is no longer required for this service. For more information about accessing e-resources from off-campus, check our Accessing Journals and Articles from Home page.
Non-Photo Cash Card
If you do not wish to purchase the Ryerson OneCard, you may purchase a generic Cash Card for the ease of stored value purchases (SVP). For $5 you will receive a card containing $4 of spendable funds. You can continue to add funds to this card.

Non-photo Cash Cards are not personalized and can be used by anyone holding them unless you report them as lost. Please note your card account number for that purpose. Your card number is found on printed receipts from the Payment Headquarters in Location (PHIL) machines. Simply request a balance check on the PHIL machine to get a printed receipt.

You can purchase a non-photo Cash Card at the OneCard office or at 15 PHIL machines on campus. These non-photo Cash Cards must be initially activated at the PHIL machine following the instructions given when purchasing the card.

Security and Emergency Services
In person: 111 Bond Street
By phone: 416.979.5040
By email: security@ryerson.ca
Website: ryerson.ca/irm

Ryerson is committed to providing a safe and secure environment for all members of our campus community. Security and Emergency Services exists to provide programs and services that will respond to issues and concerns in security and emergency response-related areas.

In an emergency
► Dial “80” on any internal Ryerson telephone, or press the “emergency” auto dial button (#1 red) free of charge from any payphone on the Ryerson campus.
► The emergency blue phones located around the exterior of the campus are also a free call to Security.

When to Call
► a medical emergency
► signs of smoke or fire
► any violent acts
► crimes in progress
► suspicious persons or activities
► a gas smell
► a chemical spill
► any other safety concerns

Preventing Theft
Never leave bags, personal electronics, and other items unattended; the vast majority of personal property thefts occur when you do.

Evacuating the Building
In case of evacuation, you will be notified either by the fire alarm sounding and/or the building’s paging system. Please use stairwells to evacuate.

Take all belongings from your immediate work area. You may not be able to re-enter the building after having evacuated. Ensure your computer is set up with a screensaver password and ensure that it is set to come on. This will provide a level of security for your computer.

In Case of Fire
If you see, smell, or hear a fire:
1. Pull the closest fire alarm.
2. Exercise good judgment in deciding whether to attempt to extinguish the fire, with the fire protection equipment available.
3. If in doubt, leave the fire scene, and close all doors.
4. Call Security from a safe location, and give all the pertinent facts.
5. Leave the building by the nearest safe exit. Do not use elevators.
6. Stand outside the building to direct the Fire Department and/or Security to the exact location of the fire.

Non-ambulatory people should contact Security from the nearest internal phone, payphone, or emergency blue phone. Let them know that you cannot use the stairs to evacuate. Tell security staff which exit stairwell you will be waiting beside – the one with the elevator would be best if it is the safest one. Once off the phone with Security, make your way to the exit and wait. Toronto Fire Services personnel will evacuate you if needed.

Security Staff
Recognizable in their black and white “Ryerson Security” uniforms, Security and Emergency Services protects the campus 24 hours a day. The main security office is located at 111 Bond Street (south of Gould Street, beside the Orthodox Church). Ryerson Bike Patrol officers can be seen pedaling around wearing their highly visible yellow jackets.

Emergency Services Team
Ryerson’s Emergency Services Team consists of a group of selected security staff that receive comprehensive training in emergency medical care and respond to medical emergencies across campus. Please contact Security for any medical emergency at 416.979.5040 or by dialing “80.”
