

What is The Walter G. Pitman Award?

The Walter G. Pitman Award was established in 1980 to honour Walter G. Pitman, Past President of Ryerson University, for his passion for lifelong learning. The award will be granted to a Chang School continuing education student registered in a certificate, who has achieved academic excellence and has a demonstrable record of outstanding contribution to the Ryerson community. Students may apply directly or be nominated by a member of the Ryerson community.

What is the value of The Walter G. Pitman Award?

There is one annual award valued at $350.

Who is eligible to apply?

To be eligible to apply for The Walter G. Pitman Award you must meet all of the following criteria:

1. Be a Chang School continuing education student registered in a certificate program
2. Be a Canadian Citizen, Permanent Resident, or Protected Person (with valid PPSD)
3. Be an Ontario resident for at least one year (12 consecutive months)

Who is ineligible to apply?

You are ineligible to apply if you have received the award in the past.

How will students be selected?

Students will be evaluated and ranked according to the following criteria:

1. Evidence of academic achievement (Unofficial Transcript)
2. Essay (250 words or less) of your (or student's) achievements within the Ryerson community

Students are expected to be honest in providing information on the application and in any subsequent discussions. If there is clear evidence that a student has misrepresented their circumstances or achievements, the award will be refused or withdrawn.
